PLEASE READ THIS ORDER CAREFULLY. IT CONTROLS THIS CASE AND DIFFERS IN SOME RESPECTS FROM THE LOCAL RULES.

This case has been assigned to United States District Judge Sunshine S. Sykes. This matter is set for a Scheduling Conference on the above date via Zoom videoconference. If Plaintiff has not already served the operative complaint on all Defendants, Plaintiff shall do so promptly and shall file proofs of service of the summons and complaint within three (3) days thereafter. See Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4; Local Rule 4. Defendants also shall timely serve and file their responsive pleadings and comply with the requirements of Local Rule 5-3.2. At the Scheduling Conference, the Court will set a date by which motions to amend the 1 pleadings or add parties must be heard.

2 The Scheduling Conference will be held pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil 3 Procedure 16(b). The parties are reminded of their obligations under Federal Rule
4 of Civil Procedure 26(f) to make initial disclosures without awaiting a discovery
5 request and, under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f), to confer regarding a 6 discovery plan at least twenty-one (21) days before the Scheduling Conference.

7 The Court encourages counsel to agree to begin to conduct discovery before the 8 Scheduling Conference. At the very least, the parties shall comply fully with the 9 letter and spirit of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a) and obtain and produce 10 most of what would be produced in the early stage of discovery as the Court will 11 impose strict deadlines to complete discovery at the Scheduling Conference.

12 This Court does not exempt parties appearing pro se from compliance 13 with any of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules, 14 including Local Rule 16. See Local Rules 1-3, 83-2.2.3. “Counsel,” as used in 15 this order, includes parties appearing pro se.

16 I. Joint Rule 26(f) Report

17 The Joint Rule 26(f) Report must be filed at least fourteen (14) days before the 18 Scheduling Conference. Mandatory paper chambers copies of the Joint Rule 26(f)
19 Report must be delivered to Judge Sykes' drop box outside the door of Courtroom 20 2 by 5:00 PM on the first court day following the e-filing.

21 The Joint Rule 26(f) Report shall be drafted by Plaintiff (unless the parties 22 agree otherwise) but shall be submitted and signed jointly. If the Plaintiff is 23 appearing pro se, the Joint Rule 26(f) Report shall be drafted by Defendant's 24 counsel (unless Plaintiff prefers to do so). “Jointly” means a single report 25 regardless of the number of separately represented parties involved in the case. The 26 Joint Rule 26(f) Report shall specify the date of the Scheduling Conference on the 27 caption page and shall report on all matters described below as specified by Federal 28 Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f) and Local Rule 26:

- 1 a. Statement of the Case: A short synopsis (not to exceed two pages) of 2 the main claims, counterclaims, and affirmative defenses.
- 3 b. Subject Matter Jurisdiction: A statement of the specific basis of federal 4 jurisdiction, including supplemental jurisdiction. If there is a federal question, cite 5 the federal law under which the claim arises.
- 6 c. Legal Issues: A brief description of the key legal issues, including any 7 unusual substantive, procedural, or evidentiary issues.
- 8 d. Parties and Evidence: A list of parties, percipient witnesses, and key 9 documents or other evidence concerning the main issues in the case. For conflict 10 purposes, corporate parties must identify all subsidiaries, parents, and affiliates.
- 11 e. Service of Complaint: A short statement regarding whether Plaintiff 12 has served a summons and complaint upon each and every Defendant. If there 13 are any outstanding Defendants to whom Plaintiff has not yet served a summons 14 and complaint, a list of each Defendant which includes the reason Plaintiff has not 15 yet served them. Failure to show good cause as to why Plaintiff has failed to serve 16 each Defendant may result in dismissal of each such Defendant from the case 17 without prejudice for failure to prosecute.
- 18 f. Damages: The realistic range of provable damages.
- 19 g. Insurance: Whether insurance coverage exists, the extent of coverage, 20 and whether there has been or will be a reservation of rights.
- 21 h. Motions: A statement of the likelihood of motions seeking to add other 22 parties or claims, file amended pleadings, transfer venue, or challenge the Court's 23 jurisdiction.
- 24 i. Dispositive Motions: A description of the issues or claims any party 25 believes may be determined by motion to dismiss or motion for summary judgment.
26 The parties should refer to the Court's Standing Order for specific guidelines 27 governing summary judgment motions.
- 28 j. Manual For Complex Litigation: Whether all or part of the procedures

1 of the Manual For Complex Litigation should be utilized.

2 k. Status of Discovery: A discussion of the present state of discovery, 3 including a summary of pending and completed discovery, and any current or 4 anticipated disputes.

5 l. Discovery Plan: A detailed discovery plan, as contemplated by Federal 6 Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f). State what, if any, changes in the disclosures under 7 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a) should be made, the subjects on which 8 discovery may be needed, whether discovery should be conducted in phases or 9 otherwise be limited, whether applicable limitations should be changed or other 10 limitations imposed, and whether the Court should enter other orders. A general 11 statement that discovery will be conducted as to all claims and defenses or another 12 vague description is not acceptable.

13 m. Fact Discovery Cut-off: A proposed discovery cut-off date governing 14 the completion of all fact discovery, including resolution of all discovery motions.

15 n. Expert Discovery: Proposed dates for initial and rebuttal expert witness 16 disclosures and expert discovery cut-off under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17 26(a)(2).

18 o. Settlement Conference / Alternative Dispute Resolution (“ADR”): A 19 statement of what settlement negotiations have occurred, excluding any statement
20 of the terms discussed. If a Notice to Parties of Court-Directed ADR Program 21 (Form ADR-08) was filed in this case, the Court will refer it to the Magistrate 22 Judge, the Court Mediation Panel, or to private mediation at the parties’ expense.
23 The parties must state their preference in the Joint Rule 26(f) Report. The Court 24 will exercise its discretion to select an ADR option for the parties if they fail to 25 state a preference. No case will proceed to trial unless all parties, including an 26 officer with full settlement authority for corporate parties, have appeared personally 27 at an ADR proceeding.

28 p. Trial Estimate: A realistic estimate, in days, of the Court time required

1 for trial and whether trial will be by jury or by the Court. Each side should specify 2 by number, not by name, the number of witnesses it contemplates calling. If the 3 time estimate for trial given in the Joint Rule 26(f) Report exceeds four (4) court 4 days, counsel must address in detail in the Report the basis for the estimate.

5 q. Trial Counsel: The name(s) of the attorney(s) who will try the case.

6 r. Independent Expert or Master: Whether the Court should consider 7 appointing a master pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 53 or an 8 independent scientific expert at the parties' expense. The appointment of a master 9 may be appropriate in cases where the parties anticipate substantial discovery 10 disputes, numerous claims to be construed in connection with a motion for 11 summary judgment, a lengthy Daubert hearing, or a resolution of a difficult 12 computation of damages.

13 s. Schedule Worksheet: The parties must make every effort to agree on all 14 pretrial and trial dates and must complete the attached Schedule of Pretrial and 15 Trial Dates Worksheet ("Worksheet") and include it with their Joint Rule 26(f)
16 Report. The entries in the "Time Computation" column reflect what the Court 17 believes is appropriate for most cases and will allow the Court to rule on potentially 18 dispositive motions sufficiently in advance of the Final Pretrial Conference.
19 However, the parties may propose other dates by which the key requirements must 20 be completed. Each date should be stated as month, day, and year, e.g., 1/15/2020.
21 Hearings shall be on Fridays at 2:00 p.m. The Final Pretrial Conference shall be 22 held on Friday at 1:00 p.m. All deadlines shall be on Fridays. The parties must 23 avoid federal holidays. The Court may order dates different from those the parties 24 propose. The discovery cut-off date is the last day by which all depositions must 25 be completed, responses to previously served written discovery must be provided, 26 and motions concerning discovery disputes must be heard. The cut-off date for 27 motions is the last date on which motions must be heard, not filed. If the parties 28 would like the Court to set dates in addition to those listed on the Worksheet, they

1 may so request by separate Stipulation and Proposed Order. Additional hearings 2 are often appropriate for class actions, patent cases, and cases for benefits under 3 the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”).

4 t. Class Actions: If the action is a putative class action, the parties must 5 provide a proposed briefing schedule for the motion for class certification
6 according to the deadlines described Court’s Civil Standing Order. The Court 7 expects the parties to act diligently and begin discovery immediately because the 8 motion for class certification must be filed no later than one-hundred-eighty (180)
9 days from the date originally set for the Scheduling Conference unless the Court
10 orders otherwise. In other words, a continuance of the date for the Scheduling 11 Conference will not extend the time to file the motion for class certification.

12 u. Other issues: A statement of any other issues affecting the status or 13 management of the case, including unusually complicated technical or 14 technological issues, disputes over protective orders, extraordinarily voluminous 15 document production, non-English speaking witnesses, reasonable ADA 16 accommodations, discovery in foreign jurisdictions, the applicability of foreign 17 law, the advanced age or health of parties or key witnesses, and any proposals 18 concerning severance, bifurcation, or other ordering of proof.

19 The Joint Rule 26(f) Report should set forth the above-described information 20 under section headings corresponding to those in this Order.

21 II. Scheduling Conference

22 a. Continuance: A request to continue the Scheduling Conference will be 23 granted only for good cause. The parties should refer to the Court’s Standing Order 24 for additional guidance regarding requests for continuances.

25 b. Vacating the Scheduling Conference: The Court may vacate the 26 Scheduling Conference and issue the Scheduling Order based solely on the parties’ 27 Joint Rule 26(f) Report pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16(b).

28 c. Participation: If the Court elects to conduct a Scheduling Conference,

1 lead trial counsel must attend unless excused by the Court for good cause before 2 the Conference.

3 d. Failure to Submit a Joint Report: The failure to submit a Joint Report in 4 advance of the Scheduling Conference or to attend the Scheduling Conference may 5 result in the dismissal of the action, striking the Answer and entering a default, 6 and/or the imposition of sanctions.

7 III. Notice to be Provided by Counsel

8 Plaintiff's counsel or, if Plaintiff is appearing pro se, Defendant's counsel, 9 shall provide this Order to any parties who first appear after the date of this Order 10 and to parties who are known to exist but have not yet entered appearances.

11 IV. Disclosures to Clients

12 Counsel are ordered to deliver to their clients a copy of this Order and of the 13 Court's Scheduling Order, which will contain the schedule the Court sets at the 14 Scheduling Conference.

15 V. Court's Website

16 This and all other generally applicable orders of this Court are available on the 17 Central District of California website, <https://www.cacd.uscourts.gov/>. The Local 18 Rules are also available on the Court's website at <https://www.cacd.uscourts.gov/court-procedures/local-rules>.

20 The Court thanks the parties and their counsel for their anticipated cooperation.
